About Us

Our love of all things bee's, and sustainability have lead us to create our little shop. While our name is playful, we take the products we provide you with, very seriously. You shouldn't have to compromise the quality of your products to act sustainably, and you shouldn't have to compromise sustainability to have great, and affordable products! If you love good products, cute products, sustainability or you just want to see what all the buzz is about, pop in to our store to check us out!

Products We Have in Our Hive (Store)

Say hello to our beeswax candle collection! Not only do they have beautiful honeycomb design that wafts the gentle aroma of honey, they're natural purifiers, that burn longer and are hypoallergenic!
